

EXIN Accredited Courseware Providers (ACP)

version

July 15, 2010

Companies developing courseware can become EXIN Accredited Courseware Provider (ACP). In order to become an Accredited Courseware Provider, EXIN will assess whether the courseware sufficiently prepares the course participants for the independent EXIN exam. EXIN Accredited Training Providers (ATP) can purchase accredited training materials from an EXIN Accredited Courseware Provider (ACP).

Below you will find a full overview of Courseware Providers currently accredited by EXIN:
